HURRYING FIRE BY
USING KEROSENE
IS FATAL TO EAST
END COLORED MAN

Luther MacManus, aged 35, a colored employee at the Robinson Clay Product Company's sewer pipe works, died at the Clearfield Hospital at 11 o'clock last evening of burns received two hours before when he attempted to put out a fire in the kitchen stove with kerosene.

MacManus was married and lived with his wife in one of the company houses near the sewer pipe works in Lawrence township adjoining the Fourth Ward. When he got home from his work last evening about 6 o'clock he found the stove cold and believing the fire to be out, seized a can of kerosene with which to relight the fire. He poured the kerosene on the stove and lit it. The fire spread rapidly and he fled. He was found by his wife and neighbors who rushed to a telephone to call the Clearfield Hospital. The out of town call for a fire at the sewer pipe works was sounded and soon the entire fire department was on its way to the fire. When the firemen arrived they found no need for their services as the fire had not been allowed to engulf the MacManus home. The ambulance was quickly located and threading its way carefully through the heavy traffic due to the fire alarm was quickly on the scene. The badly burned man was taken to the hospital and everything possible done for him. His death ensued about five hours after his admission.

The remains were prepared for burial by Undertaker Leavitt and will be taken by his wife to their former home at Monroe, N. C., for burial. MacManus was an honest, upright man and was afflicted with Sumner's disease, No. 4152 I. O. O. F.

IN "THE DIGEST'S" BIG POLL

Combined Votes of Other
Candidates

John W. Davis has increased his percentage of the popular and Electoral College vote in this week's returns of the Literary Digest's big Presidential poll as ballots from all of the forty-eight states have been received which, the Digest proclaims, "may, for the first time, be considered fairly representative of the nation as a whole."

As the Democratic percentage has risen slightly, the Republican ratio has correspondingly decreased. Of the total of nearly 2,000,000 votes, Coolidge has 1,066,214; Davis, 248,205; La Follette, 432,660, which expressed in percentages show 56 per cent. Republican, 20 per cent. Democratic, and almost 23 per cent. Progressive.

La Follette is still holding Wisconsin while Davis has increased his leadership to eleven states and President Coolidge is ahead in the other thirty-six states. La Follette is second choice in twenty-eight states with second in thirteen. In Kentucky and Oklahoma, the Democratic Charles G. Dawes, the Senatorial Campaign Fund Investigating Committee was told here today at the initial session of its probe into Senator Robert M. La Follette's "slush fund" charges.

The statistics were given by Wm. V. Hodges of Denver treasurer of the Committee, who was able to recall that one specific donation of any amount—that of $25,000 from Wm. Wrigley, Jr.

After Hodges completed his testimony a recess was taken for lunch. The morning session lasted only two hours and was conducted in a virtually deserted court room. The hearings are open to the public but only three or four women took advantage of the opportunity to listen to the proceedings.

H. H. KOHLISAAT
DIES SUDDENLY

Washington, Oct. 17 (INS).—Herman Henry Kohlisaat, of New York, famous newspaper editor, died suddenly here today at the home of Secretary of Commerce Hoover.

BURIED HIS FATHER

J. L. McGinniss, of the Market street Auto Sales Company, attended the funeral of his father, Jerome McGinniss, at St. Mary's, Pa.

Jerome McGinniss, who had not been in good health for the past several months, suffered a stroke of apoplexy on Tuesday last and died almost instantly. When advised of his father's illness Mr. McGinniss drove across the mountain to his bedside but death had ensued before he arrived.

The deceased, a native of New York State, was 70 years of age. He was a machinist and had been employed in the car shops at St. Marys for the past twenty-five years and was a highly respected citizen. His wife preceded him to that better world in April last.

He is survived by two daughters and two sons, of whom J. L., of Clearfield, is one. The funeral takes place this Friday morning, from St. Mary's Catholic church. Interment was made in St. Mary's Catholic cemetery.

percentage of error, of course, may or may not exist, but it is noteworthy that, even granting its existence, it would make a change in the political complexion of only three States.

"California would be transferred from the Coolidge to the La Follette column," Kentucky and Oklahoma would go to the Democrats, and West Virginia, Mr. Davis' home State, would show practically a tie vote between Coolidge and Davis.

"A feature of the voting in California is that, since the tabulation published a week ago, Coolidge has received 5,149 to La Follette's 4,651, a proportion which seems to indicate a slight rise, for the week at least, in the California popularity of the Progressive candidate.

"The question as to the source of Mr. La Follette's strength, whether it came more largely from the Republican or Democratic ranks, continues to stir a good many of the political prophets and dopesters.

"In consulting the table of 'How the Same Voters Voted in 1920,' some observers of the poll have called attention to the large size of the 'Did-Not-Vote' column. In this column, it must be explained, is included both those who specify that they did not vote and those who did not.

SHADEL VIGOROUSLY
DENIES AUTHORSHIP
OF LETTERS TO MRS.
WILLOW ON STAND

By VIN. D. SWEENEY
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)
Middleburg, Pa., Oct. 27.—Question: "Did you write this letter?" Answer: "I did not."

Eight different times this question was asked in Judge Potter's court today and each time the answer was the same. Ralph Shadel had denied authorship of the "love notes" that the defense in the trial of Mrs. Annie Willow had built its case around.

In a little less than an hour, both prosecution and defense completed their cases. Preparations were being made for the closing addresses to the jury.

It was one of the most surprising sessions of the entire trial and there was more mystery around the now famous notes alleged to have been written by Shadel to the woman, who is on trial as an accessory in the murder of her husband.

The court room was less than half filled as the youth took the stand. Mrs. Willow, accompanied by her two children, came into court with Sheriff Runkle. She took her seat behind her counsel and never once glanced at the witness. Neither did Shadel look at her. When he was not inspecting the notes he kept in eyes fixed on Attorney Ulrich, who is assisting in the prosecution.

The notes have now come forward as the biggest point in the case. Defense counsel introduced them early in the week and they were admitted as evidence. Vindication of the woman with any connection with the crime is contained in them. Defense established their authenticity by calling two bankers as hand writing experts. In rebuttal, prosecution began its attack on their Sheriff Runkle and Louis Gemberling, former county treasurer, testified that the signatures on the notes were not genuine. Today Ralph Shadel denied he had ever written them.

The jury was withdrawn at ten o'clock while counsel for both sides clashed over legal points.

ANNVILLE, PA. MAN IS ARRESTED FOR BANK
HOLDUP AND MURDER
AT ABBOTSTOWN, PA

Reading, Pa., Oct. 17. (INS).—Grilled for hours by state police after he had walked into the station voluntarily "to tell what he knew" about the Abbotstown bank robbery, Philip Hartman, 24, finally broke down early this morning and confessed it was he who robbed the bank and afterward murdered State Trooper Francis L. Haley, who pursued him.

Hartman's confession came after he had stubbornly denied all guilt in the death of Haley and had insisted he merely acted as chauffeur for "George Roth, of Columbus, O.," who he said did the shooting.

Later he admitted the story about Roth was fictitious and that he was alone when the murder and robbery was committed.

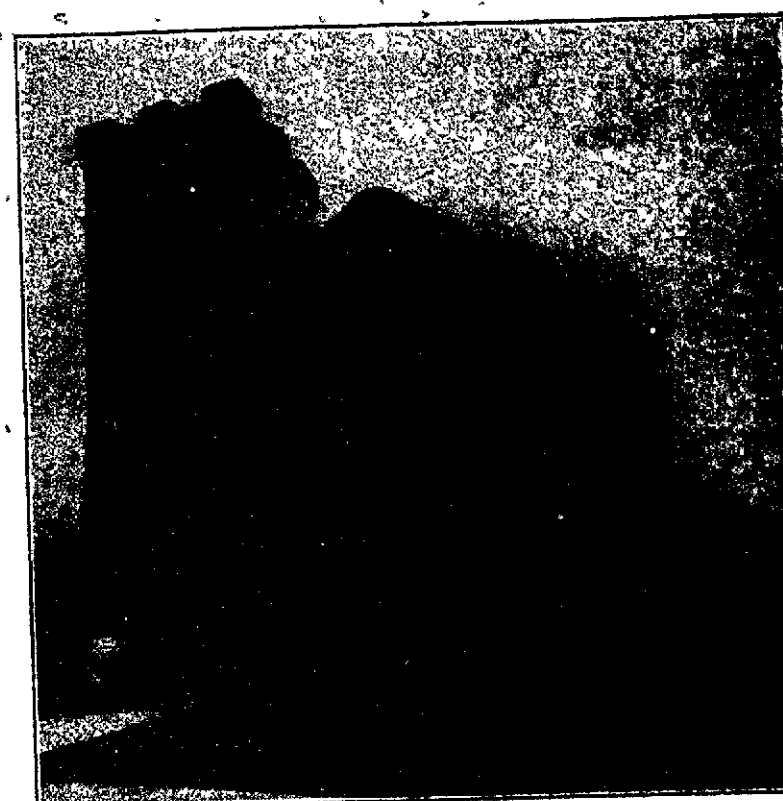

Hartman told police he had made no plans to rob the bank at Abbotstown but decided to do it while riding through there because "I was desperate and in need of money." The confessed murderer then said he had to fight with himself nearly an hour before he plucked up courage enough to enter the bank and rob the lone employee.

During his flight from Abbotstown he told how he looked back and found State Trooper Haley in hot pursuit and rapidly overtaking him.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 17. (INS).—Philip A. Hartman, of Rochester, N. Y., whose home is at Anville, Lebanon county, Pa., voluntarily surrendered to Reading police last night and after a grueling examination, when he offered an alibi for himself and discrepancies were found, broke down and confessed that he had shot and killed State Trooper Francis L. Haley, at Caledonia Park, last Tuesday afternoon.

Hartman said he had robbed the Abbotstown bank of $1,400 and then fled across the mountains, hoping to double up on his trail and return to Aspers, where he has a brother. However, Haley appeared on the road and he shot and killed him.

Along With Them.

FROM VANDERGRIFT

A Chevrolet car driven by a man from Vandergrift, Pa., who had two women companions, crashed through the broken iron guard fence and went over the wing wall at the entrance to the Second street bridge and down onto the New York Central tracks this morning about 6 o'clock.

The party was traveling from Vandergrift to Virginia, stopping here last evening. They decided on an early start despite the fog and were traveling down Second street intending to go out Bridge street to the Lakes to the Sea highway at Third street. It was so foggy that the driver, also unfamiliar with the road, was unable to see the blind turn into Bridge street and while attempting to locate same ran across the opening into Bridge street and continued on over the wall down onto the tracks.

The car shoved through the battered old iron fence on the wall and dropped about four feet on its nose onto the railroad tracks. By one of those fortunate circumstances which appear to guard motorists generally the occupants of the car escaped injury and the machine itself came through with but a small measure of damage considering the tumble it took.

The spot where the accident occurred is about the most dangerous one about the town. This morning's accident makes the third of the kind at the same place within a month. The iron guard fence is now a complete wreck and the County Commissioners should be importuned to replace it at once with a substantial barrier.

LOCAL MAN ESCAPES
FROM ROCKVIEW

Police of many Pennsylvania cities have been enlisted into the search for two prisoners who escaped from Rock view prison farm of the Western Penitentiary at Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon. The convicts are James C. Creggan, aged 18, of Turtle Creek, serving four to eight years for robbery in Allegheny county, and Howard Ardery, aged 22, serving two to four years for breaking, entering and larceny in Clearfield county.

Mystery surrounds the escape. They were working in the cell block and quit at 5 p. m., and had their supper. From 5:30 to 8 p. m. is the recreation period and when the roll was called at 8 p. m. their disappearance was discovered.

"JOLLY JESTER" MADE
A BIG HIT HERE

The Clearfield County Tuberculosis Society, which recently secured the Jolly Jester health clown to campaign Clearfield county on a campaign to educate the children of the county in preventive measures for the combating of the spread of that disease, have checked up on the trip of the Jolly Jester and are much pleased to be able to state that no less than 14,775 children attended the different meetings where the Jolly Jester was on the job, and where the influence and impression made by the health clown will long remain an influence for good.

The following towns were visited and benefited: Coalport, Irons, Mahaffay, Curwensville, Woodland, Madera, Houtdale, Ocoola, Winburne, and Grassflat.

vote and those who failed to mention their political allegiance in 1920. "A more complicated tabulation, kept in the Digest's polling room shows in more detail the trend of the vote. Thus, in California, according to this tabulation, Mr. La Follette draws his large vote chiefly from 12,862 former Democrats and 32,188 former Republicans, while 4,883 former Democrats are registered as voting for Coolidge, and 1,569 former Republicans are in the Democratic column.

"Turning to an eastern state, New York, where La Follette has shown considerable strength, it appears that he draws 28,804 votes from former Republicans to 11,654 from former Democrats.

"In Iowa, he is credited with 11,137 formerly Republican votes and 8,887 formerly Democratic. In Wisconsin, his home State, his present vote includes ballots from 20,306 former Republicans and 4,094 former Democrats; in Pennsylvania, 12,965 former Republicans and 3,791 former Democrats.

"In this connection it must be remembered that 1920 was a strongly Republican year, so that there is small indication in these figures that the Progressive candidate's strength is being contributed exclusively by one party, as several partisans have announced.

"It is also noteworthy that, in spite of Mr. La Follette's large vote, he has so far carried only the State of Wisconsin, with California added, pointing that the present poll has a somewhat larger percentage of error in favor of the Republicans than was shown in the smaller poll of 1920.

"A Democratic paper finds in the registration of the previous affiliations of the poll voters, which is now given as 1,076,905 Republicans to 1,251 Democrats, a sign that no Democrat could possibly win in the election.

"It may be said, also, that no Democrat can win in the election unless a considerable number of the Republicans of 1920 change their politics.

"The citizenry of the country was divided, roughly, in 1920 between 9,000,000 Republicans and 9,000,000 Democratic voters, with only a small third-party vote, less than 1,000,000 for the Socialist candidate to complicate the issue. What shifts, then, are now being made from Republican to Democratic ranks, or from Democrats to Republican, that will show that the verdict of 1920 is to be reversed, or repeated?

"A glance at the table comparing the 1920 and 1924 columns shows a Republican increase in thirty-two of the States, while sixteen show a decreasing Republican vote. Ten States, on the other hand, show a Democratic increase over 1920, while a loss in the Democratic vote during the last four years is indicated in 38 States. Some of these gains and losses are very large; some so small as to mean little.

"Among the more significant changes, there appear to have been Republican losses in Iowa, Illinois, Pennsylvania, California, Minnesota, and Wisconsin. Republican gains are indicated in many of the States of the 'Solid South,' where such increases will, in all probability, have no effect on the election whatever, and also in Kansas, New York, and Michigan. Aside from ordinarily Democratic States, the Democrats appear to have increased their voting strength in West Virginia.

"In presenting the views of Republican and Democratic editors on the general accuracy of their polls The Digest concludes with the comment of a Nebraska editor:

"No straw vote," the editor states, "is actually satisfactory—the losing side. However, the Digest vote of 1920 was amazingly accurate, and if we remember right, there was the same doubting on the part of the same editors."

LESSON NO. 6

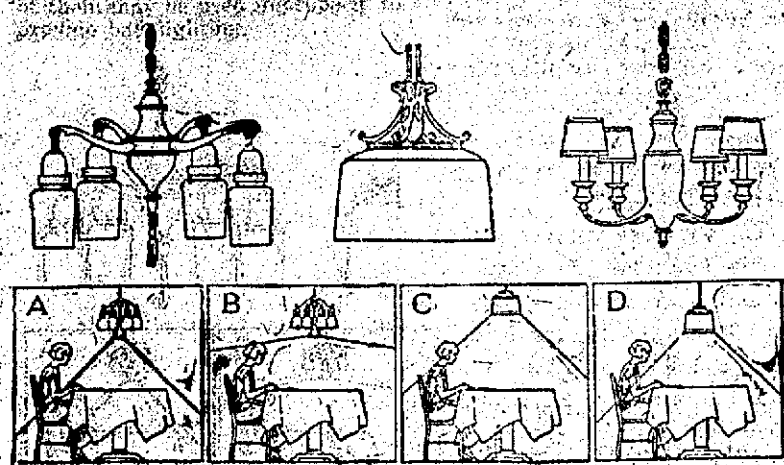

LIGHTING THE DINING ROOM

In some ways the dining room is the most important of the living room. The living room has many different uses, but the dining room is used except at meal times. In the living room the furniture is moved about and changed, but in the dining room the arrangement of furniture rarely changes.

The dining table is in the center of the room, and it is the center of interest. It should be the most brightly lighted object in the whole room. There are a number of different kinds of fixtures which may be hung from the ceiling to provide good lighting, and almost all of these may be used properly to provide the lighting.

(C) the glare from the bulb is directly in the eyes of everyone seated at the table, but if it is put down closer to the table, as at (D) the fixture completely hides the bulb, and we have excellent dining room lighting without glare. For most fixtures it is best to see that the bottom of the shades is not more than 26 inches above the table for (A) and 24 inches above the table for (D). Where candle fixtures are used, shades are needed not only to protect the eyes from the glare, but to reflect some of the light which would otherwise go up to the ceiling or down on the table.

The fixtures over the table will

THE CENTER CEILING FIXTURE

Whatever the kind of fixture, it is important that the eyes of anyone seated at the table be protected against the glare of the bulbs which furnish the light. There are two ways to do this. 1. Be sure that the shades are long enough, and of the right shape. For example, the next picture shows a fixture on which one bulb (A) is well shaded and the other bulb (B) is badly shaded.

The shade which is narrower at the bottom protects the eyes of the person at the table. 2. For a given shade, be sure the fixture is low enough over the table (but not so low as to be in the way or make it impossible to see the person sitting opposite).

Now look at the fixture in (C) and (D). When this fixture is as high above the table as it is at need bulbs with a total of from 100 to 200 watts.

OTHER LIGHTING

Bracket fixtures on the walls and candlesticks on the buffet may be used to add decoration, provided they are well shaded and are not so bright as to be annoying or to produce glare and eye-strain. When they are used, the bulbs should not be larger than 15 or 25 watts.

Convenience outlets should be installed for electric appliances. If used on the dining table, a convenience outlet may be placed in the floor under the table, or on the underside of the table itself, so that the unsightly cord need not hang from a bulb socket and cause one part of the lighting fixture to be dark. Duplex convenience outlets which permit the use of two appliances may be installed for practically the same cost as the older style single outlets.

In the Courts

Attorneys Liveright and Chase, on behalf of The Farris Engineering Co. of Pittsburg, entered suit in Prothonotary Bailston's office yesterday against The Pyramid Stone Manufacturing Co. of DuBois, in an effort to recover $7,793.45, which the plaintiffs allege is due in a bill of particulars of which the following is the sense:

The Farris people had a contract for the erection of a bridge in Johnstown. On August 30, 1922, they contracted with the DuBois concern for the supplying of forty-eight railing slabs, to be made out of a 1-2-4 concrete mix. The slabs were received at Johnstown about January, 1923, covered with ice, were put in place on the bridge. When the ice thawed the slabs were found to be faulty and according to specifications.

By the reason of the defective slabs the sum of $13,613.33 was withheld from the plaintiff by the city of Johnstown for one year, while the slabs were removed at great expense and replaced by the plaintiff. They ask reimbursement to the amount of $6,342.76 for this removal, $634.28 interest on the deferred contract payment and $1643 the amount paid the defendants for the slabs, which payment was made before the slabs were found to be defective.

Good bakings are becoming a matter of fact in this country. Years ago, the woman who had success on bake day was rare. Now, most anyone can be proud of their bakings—the young bride, the school-girl and all.

Calumet Baking Powder has made all this possible, it is sitting on the pantry shelf in millions of homes, that's the secret of baking success—the real reason for uniform and wholesome food.

If you are among the few who are not familiar with the results obtained from using Calumet, try it—learn the difference between the results that come from using a perfect leavener and those that are experienced when using unreliable brands.

To follow the directions on the Calumet label is to invite success. You must not use as much as you do of many other kinds. You know Calumet has greater leavening strength than many other brands—it goes farther—makes more bakings—the last spoonful is as good as the first.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

The gay and festive bootlegger appears to be operating and "going to the wall" in many other places in addition to Clearfield county. And while a lot of money is being spent to corral these violators of the law, the friends of prohibition claim that not only are they enforcing the law but the enforcement thereof is "paying its own way." At least that is what Federal Prohibition Commissioner Haynes told the Dayton, Ohio Council of Churches in an address he made them a day or two ago. In speaking of enforcement and its blunders and accomplishments, Commissioner Haynes says:

"Over 65,000 bootleggers and moonshiners arrested by Federal agents last year can testify that prohibition is being enforced. This number does not, of course, include the many thousands of arrests made by State, county and other local officials.

"Prohibition has not been a drain on the public purse. The appropriation for enforcement of the Prohibition

Law last fiscal year was $8,350,000. Fines imposed on convicted violators were over $7,000,000, more than $5,000,000 of which has already been collected and turned into the United States Treasury.

Brewers paid into the treasury nearly $1,000,000 last year in compromise of civil liabilities against them. To this should be added the amount of tax penalties imposed on violators, exact figures for which are not yet available. The bootlegger is paying his own fare to prison. Prohibition is not intended to produce revenue from fines. It is, however, paying its way in this respect.

There is infinitely less drinking now than before Prohibition. Certain groups may be drinking more, but they are small in comparative numbers. The good order obtaining at all large gatherings during the last year is proof of the decreased use of beverage liquors. Our streets are practically free from drunks.

To the average thoughtful person argument is not necessary to prove that enforcement of the prohibition law is effective. Any one, anywhere, can see this for himself. But there is so much loose talking and loose writing about this subject that un-informed and unthinking people immediately conclude that prohibition is responsible for all the ills of the Nation.

There is practically no open and above-board drinking anywhere, and what drinking is done is so guarded and done so surreptitiously that much more quickly than through the slow natural process. Many other diseases, it is expected, can be prevented or cured by the "magic light," these including convulsions in children, chronic tonsillitis, rheumatic affections and, at early stages, tuberculosis.

"The home manufacture of liquor has been practically eliminated, and with the augmentation of the Coast Guard for patrolling the coasts, the smuggling problem soon will be solved. The greatest remaining problem, the curtailment of the diversion of industrial alcohol for beverage use, is being successfully met."

Scientists with their ultra violet electric rays are now invading the barnyard and while confidently expecting to be able to produce much better cattle by its use in the near future while already its beneficial influence has had a startling effect on the growth and development of young chickens.

It is expected that the subjecting of chicks to the ultra-violet rays will, in addition to curing and preventing diseases, expedite growth to such an extent that even in cold climates birds can be brought to the "broiler" size weeks earlier than now, while egg production will be increased and made more uniform, summer and winter, while the hatching period will be reduced from three weeks to two weeks.

The ray is also bringing startling results in the treatment of rickets and other diseases of childhood.

Under the influence of baths in ultra-violet rays broken bones mend

Just what takes place when a living organism is exposed to ultra-violet rays is not understood, but some mysterious process is set in motion by which the results noted are achieved. Gland action is stimulated and the rest follows as a matter of course. The miracles are accomplished by the power of concentrated sunlight—that is what the ultra-violet rays amount to in simple terms.

Many Buttons

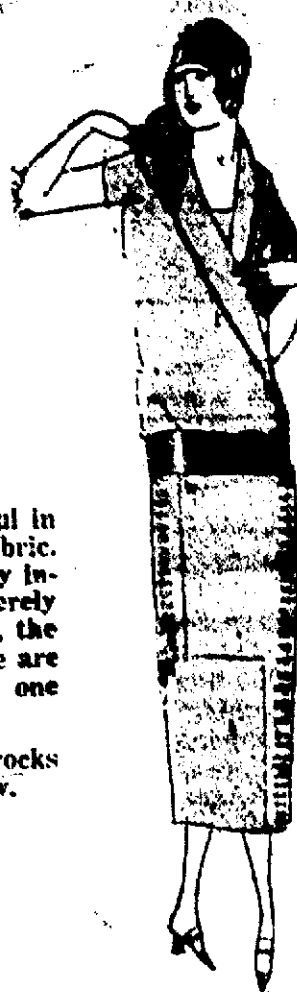

Buttons to the right, buttons to the left—buttons everywhere. That's the thing for the new Autumn dresses. And the wide belts—hung at a little below the waistline—add a touch to the women's dresses that is entirely new this season.

We have some beautiful creations, beautiful in their richness of design and ideal selection of fabric. And the showing is so comprehensive that many individual tastes may be met. There are the severely plain tailored Jersey dresses for the school girl, the business woman or for street wear. Then, there are the frocks for the more formal occasion when one avoids the plain and enters the more frivolous.

A little time devoted to our showing of frocks will be a delightful experience for you tomorrow.

20,000 DEATH SENTENCES

One would expect considerable excitement and action if 20,000 non-criminals were given a death sentence in one year. Something almost as startling appears to be true, and yet little excitement is shown except spasmodically or by special groups of citizens.

"According to statistics," writes one person who is excited, "twenty thousand persons in the United States, who today are in the full vigor of life and health, are doomed to meet untimely deaths within the next 12 months. They will be the victims of speed maniacs, drunkards and children at the steering wheels of motor cars. Of this number, the lives of 90 per cent could be saved if the government would act with the same promptitude in taking protective measures that it would were a similar number of sheep or cattle threatened with destruction."

The reprieve which the writer of those words asks for the 20,000 doomed citizens is a national licensing system for all drivers of motor cars, and the appointment of regional boards to investigate all accidents and promptly revoke the licenses of incompetent and unsafe drivers. He would have dealers in motor supplies required to examine and register the government licenses before making sales to persons operating motor cars. Thus a driver without a license would be caught promptly. Stolen cars could be discovered more quickly under such a system, too.

It sounds like a more sweeping and drastic regulation than many citizens want, since it involves federal action. But strict licensing systems in individual states might well be based on some such plan, with all the states co-operating in the enactment of uniform license laws.

THOUSANDS OF BUSES

Nearly 1,600 new motor bus lines have been started in the United States this year. That means several thousand busses, for they average more than four to a line. The new investment in such vehicles is estimated at $30,000,000. Added to the bus lines already operating, they make an impressive addition to the nation's transportation system.

It is a dignified and commodious addition, too. Many of the new busses are nearly as large as trolley cars, and fitted out with an elegance and comfort unheard of in the past.

Unfortunately these big, heavy equipages are hard on roads, but not nearly so hard as trucks, for they are nearly always fitted with pneumatic tires and springs that prevent severe jolting. Their worst fault is an occasional tendency to crowd ordinary motor cars off the road. This is almost inevitable on narrow strips of paving, because of the width of the busses.

They have come to stay, at any rate. They fulfill a general need and the public welcomes them. The roads, therefore, will have to be adapted to them.

WHAT KIND OF BROADCASTING?

The United States has several hundred radio broadcasting stations, with a wide diversity of ownership and control, though subject broadly to government supervision. England has only a dozen, all operated by one company and strictly controlled by the government. Which type is this country to have in the future?

The present tendency is toward high-power stations, owned and operated in groups by large corporations. Plans are going forward now to make such stations far more powerful, link them in larger groups and develop broadcasting on a national scale, for the important programs to make them available for the whole country.

The government is disposed to allow this, just as it allows large groupings of railroads—but always under the same condition of governmental supervision.

The public is recognized as final arbiter. It can have big, national broadcasting or little, local broadcasting, whichever it prefers. Or it can have both together, if the radio experts are able to work out a compromise system by which neither will interfere unduly with the other. This seems to be the most desirable solution.

ISN'T THIS YOUR PROBLEM?

"I intend to save money every month but somehow it just melts away and at the end of the month there's nothing left to save."

Why not reverse things and take out a fixed sum on pay day and put it to work in an interest bearing account at this bank? Live on the rest of your salary and you'll experience the self respect and pleasure of getting ahead.

In other words, pay yourself first. It makes a world of difference in one's prosperity account.

TOO MANY MEDALS

By FLORENCE DAVIES

You wondered if her were a comic opera hero or the veteran of a hundred wars, when you saw him coming down the street in a lathered uniform, his chest literally covered with medals.

The facts proved that he wasn't exactly either, but that he had done more than his share of fighting in his day and lived gloriously in memories of the past, his medals on his chest to keep those memories bright.

But they were only memories, for today his chief business in life seemed to be wearing the visible tokens of his past achievements about the country for all to see.

Instantly he reminded us of the old man who must have started an autobiography album as a boy, and whose passion for getting signatures finally got the better of him.

It's safe to say that almost every city editor in the country knows him, this old man whose autobiography album finally grew to a mighty ledger, which he has to lunge around on a sort of go-cart, or stand on wheels, and which he has laboriously to his shoulder when he climbs the stairs to the edit's office.

He's to be pitied all over the continent with his ridiculous record book, getting the signatures of the great people he has wanted to tell the world about it.

At least the man with the medals lived in the glory of his own past.

ARMISTICE DAY TO

Windups at Philadelphia and has met such men as Johnny Mealey, Joe Tippitz, Danny Kramer and Ray Mitchell. Preceding the three main bouts will be two preliminary fights between some fast featherweights.

The boxing show comes at the conclusion of a day of celebrating. A big parade in the morning of all the veterans of the coal region will be followed by a football game in the afternoon. Seats for the boxing match will be from two to five dollars and will be placed on sale in different towns in a few days. Mail orders accompanied by check or money order to the American Legion, Philadelphia, Pa., will receive prompt attention.

SOMETHING NEW IN FILMS
AT DRIGGS TONIGHT

Paramount's first full length color picture, "Wanderer of the Wasteland," photographed by the Technicolor process, certainly offers an occasion for appeal. Being a melodrama of the great outdoors—that portion of it in the Grand Canyon, N. M., is a rich shadow, gives us a visual treat which should not be missed by anyone. The color adds value to the story, which is a tale of a man's life. The color adds value to the story, which is a tale of a man's life.

Of course the picture had to carry a substantial plot—a plot convincing in logic and treatment to prevent its colors to such advantage. The deep browns, grays—and reds—in all their shades give the film a tremendous appeal. Yet the interest does not wander from the story because it has meaning and movement. This being the first western ever filmed in natural colors, it raises the question whether it might not be advisable to film all "exterior" pictures by the same process. "Wanderer of the Wasteland" would have been a picturesque western had it been photographed in black and white—but the natural colors enhance its value—and make it exceptionally vivid and compelling.

Day to Treat a Lady

George Elliott, forty-one-year-old laborer, according to the divorce bill of Mrs. Floessie Elliott, filed in Superior court, became enraged at her on one occasion and kicked the wind-shield out of their automobile. Other allegations of cruelty are made. From a news item in the Seattle Times.

Hit White Bread

The sale of white bread throughout England has decreased 50 per cent in the last two years due to the repeated warnings by doctors that white bread is a likely cause of cancer. There has been a corresponding increase in the sale of wholewheat bread.

Word's Real Meaning

When we say "going downstairs," we really mean, in the phrase as used rightly, "going up." "Down" is derived from the Saxon word "dun" which means a hill or upland. The opposite to "dun" is "a-dun" so what we should say when a descent is meant, is "going a-downstairs."

EVERYBODY INVITED AND WELCOME

WILL BE BURIED HERE

Mrs. Catherine Blackwood Shaffer, widow of Benjamin Shaffer, deceased who has been very much of an invalid for the past two or three years, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) S. D. Bailey, South Park, Phillipsburg on Wednesday afternoon, October 15, 1924, at 3 o'clock. She was born in Virginia on Feb. 15, 1847, making her age 77 years and 8 months. In her young womanhood she was united in marriage at Tyrone to Benjamin Shaffer, who died in 1884. Prior to coming to Phillipsburg, two years ago, she had resided at Woodland and Clearfield. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church, a member of her life, having been a member of Trinity congregation before removing to Phillipsburg.

She is survived by one daughter and one son, viz Mrs. (Dr.) S. D. Bailey, Phillipsburg and Harry P. Shaffer, of Farrell, Pa. Five grandchildren also survive.

The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Dr. S. D. Bailey, at Phillipsburg with interment in Hill Crest cemetery, Clearfield, Pa.

Careless Letter Writers

It is said that 200,000,000 pieces of mail yearly receive "directory service," which means that postal employees must take time from the regular handling and dispatching of mail in the "clear" or to provide correct addresses. This service costs approximately $300 daily in the city of New York alone.

Thoughtlessness to Blame

No very few people seem to be unkind that it makes you wonder why there should be all the unkindness in the world.—J. I. Backhouse.

First People in Britain
Geologists are not yet agreed when and by whom Britain was first peopled. Real knowledge began with the two Celtic invasions, that of the Golds, in the latter part of the Bronze age, and that of the Brytons and Belgae in the Iron age. By the time of Julius Caesar all the inhabitants of Britain, except perhaps some tribes in the North, were Celts in speech and customs.

Enjoying Ordinary Things
It is certainly a very important lesson to learn how to enjoy ordinary things, and to be able to relish your things, without the transport of some passion, or the gratification of some appetite.—Steele.

Better to Believe

As to the deeds of the gods, it seems holier and more reverent to believe than to know.—Tacitus.

"Sweeping" the Clouds
The failed performance of the old woman of the nursery rhyme who "swept" the cobwebs out of the sky has a scientific parallel in the ability of aviators under some conditions to brush small clouds out of the way by flying through them rapidly, says London Tit-Bits. A fair-sized summer cumulus or fair-weather cloud may sometimes be dispersed by about twenty flights through it.

"Here's Your Party!"

You don't want to have anything to do with the other thousands of telephone subscribers when you're calling some particular number. They don't figure in your communication at all.

And when you're looking for a better position, there's no use getting in touch with dozens of employers who are not in a position to hire you.

There's just one man—your future boss—that you want to reach. You can get connected with HIM through the Progress' Situations Wanted column!

By a process of elimination your little ad, telling about yourself and your training, will be considered only by the employers who are looking for your sort of worker. You don't know who they are now—but the one man you're going to work for is—but your Progress-ad will find out for you.

Stop at the Progress office and talk things over with an ad taker.

Reorganization Of U. S. Money Making Plant Is Announced By Mellon

Washington, Oct. 16 (INS)—After a two-year investigation Secretary of the Treasury Mellon announced today a complete reorganization of the United States Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the world's largest money making plant.

Work at the bureau has been divided into three groups, each under the supervision of an assistant director. Two new assistant directors, John J. Diviny, former Superintendent of Work, and Clark R. Long, former assistant chief of public debt accounts, were appointed effective today.

The bureau of engraving and printing has been a constant source of trouble to the Treasury Department for several years. Secretary Mellon finally appointed Major Kirby, an army officer, as acting director of the bureau and instructed him to reorganize the plant.

Let's Wife

On the island of St. Helena there is a curious and interesting rock called Lot's Wife. It stands erect on the crest of a ridge that runs across the barren and uninhabited part of the island, and it is supposed to be a mass of lava long ago forced up through a crack in the coast. It is nearly or quite 300 feet high and when seen from a distance bears a striking resemblance to a draped human figure of tremendous size.

Eagles Have Long Life

The biological survey says that some species of eagles have been known to live a hundred years. From records kept by the zoological societies of London it is shown that specimens in captivity lived to be forty-two, forty-six and fifty-five years of age.

Hindu Delicacy

A delicacy much prized by the Hindus consists of bamboo seeds, roasted and afterward mixed with honey.

Superfluous Hair

Rid FOREVER

—Or No Cost

Why tolerate unsightly hair on your face, neck, arms or legs when it can be removed quickly and safely, roots and all? Don't use expensive electric treatments, nor be a slave to a razor or ordinary depilatories which merely burn off the surface hairs, and often strengthen the hair roots. A marvelous new magnetic balsam which is applied almost as easily as cold cream, loosens every unsightly hair and gently lifts it out, root and all, leaving the skin healthy, clear and beautiful. No muss, no odor, no discomfort. Absolutely hairless. Try it on this guarantee—that it will absolutely rid you of superfluous hair forever—or no cost. Karma, as this new discovery is called, may be purchased at all good dealers, such as Cecil R. Bloom's Drug Store.

UNDERSTAND. All persons having claims or demands against said estate shall make known the same, and all persons indebted to the said decedent are requested to make payment to the undersigned without delay.

Mrs. Alice Elder, Susquehanna avenue, is in Jersey Shore this week visiting with a daughter, Mrs. P. A. Graham.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Elder gathered at their home Wednesday evening and enjoyed several hours with the host and hostess.

Miss Mary Wolf returned home last evening from a week's sojourn in Atlantic City. Mrs. Wolf and Robert brought her from Tyrone by the auto route.

The Keystone Club, composed of members of the Tall Cedars of Lebanon, have planned a social masquerade party to be held in rooms at the Masonic Temple, East State street, on Tuesday evening, October 22nd, commencing at 7:30. Dancing will be the principal program, but card games will be provided for those who prefer that amusement. The event promises to be a swell affair and it is expected that visitors from other towns will be present to participate in the enjoyment of the evening.

A wedding shower was given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barrow in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kelly newly wedded. A considerable number were present and left many useful household presents and best wishes for a long and happy life.

Negotiations are pending by which the McCluskey of Clearfield, will take over the John McLaughlin interest in the furniture store. The deal is not yet practically closed but from information gathered yesterday the deal will go through by the end of the week.

Joe Fullerton contemplates removing his stock of electrical gear from the room he now occupies to a room recently occupied by Edwin Hayes as a store. It is said that Jim Smith will move his restaurant into the room to be vacated by Fullerton.

Wilson McNeal is about leasing to Walter MacTavish the auto garage recently fitted up from the Central hotel barn on an alley adjacent to Meadow street. The garage has room stalls for a number of stored cars for the winter.

Bishop Bloom who has been under the weather and a partial cripple for some months is making ready to become an inmate of the County Home for the winter. John Bloom, aged 72 years, has been an inmate of the institution for the past six years.

My Beauty

Is All Due to Beauty Helps
By Edna Wallace Hopper

Edna Wallace Hopper

I was a plain girl with little distinction. I made myself a famous beauty. Now, after 35 years, as a stage star, I remain a beauty still. The thousands who see me daily on the stage know that I look 19.

When I was a girl, my rich mother took me on a world search for the supreme beauty helps. Those helps made me famous. Since then I have kept in touch with every new discovery I have made many trips to France. So what I was and what I am are due to scientific help.

Now women have convinced me that I should share these millions of girls and women want what I have gained. So I have combined all the helps I have discovered in four preparations, with 52 ingredients. And I have arranged so that all druggists and toilet counters offer them to all who wish.

One is a liquid cleanser which I call "Facial Youth." Lucie Lantelm, the famous Parisian beauty, first told me what it did. Now great beauty experts the world over are advising this formula. No other cleanser that man has discovered does what this cleanser does.

of Bellefonte, were guests in the Karstetter home on South Liberty street several days this week.

Hundreds of people are stopping in front of the large show window at the Holton & Bonisall garage in order to view the hunting scenes displayed therein. The decoration plan is an original one and illustrates the old time rail fence the tent stamps and roots of forest life. All kinds of animals are on display and in a natural position. An India leopard, mounted by Horace W. Hilton of Olanta, is an art in taxidermy as well as numerous other animals mounted by him. In the window can be seen squirrels, black, gray and red; opossums, minks, foxes, wildcat, weasels, birds of various plumage and in fact there is nothing lacking even to the natural woods trimmings but is found there. The window when lighted up at night by red and other lights make the scene one to be remembered by the men of the chase for many a day to come.

LUTHERAN CHURCH NOTICE

On Sunday, Oct. 19th in the following churches, New Millport 10:45 a. m., Olanta 3:0 p. m. and Curwensville 7:30 p. m. we will have Harvest Home services and Holy Communion. The fruit and other things that is brought to the church will be sent to the Jaysville Orphans Home. Every body is welcome to come and enjoy the services with us.

Rev. S. S. SHAULIS

PASSING OF FINE YOUNG WOMAN

The remains of Miss Margaret second daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Waterworth, who passed away after a long illness at Saranac Lake, N. Y., on Wednesday last, were brought to Clearfield on the 4:30 B. & O. P. train yesterday afternoon and taken to the family home on South Second street.

The funeral occurred this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Francis Catholic church where a high requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father M. A. Ryan. Interment was made in Calvary Cemetery.

Margaret Waterworth was born in Clearfield in April 1901, and was therefore in her 24th year. She attended St. Francis High School in the class of 1919. Following her graduation she attended Trinity College at Washington, D. C., from which institution she graduated with honors in 1921.

Exceptionally talented and ambitious she took up the teaching profession and taught in the High School at Chubb Mill, Md. during 1921-22 and had been in the term of 1922-23 in an excellent position at the High School at St. Henry, Ohio, where her health failed. Tuberculosis developed and she had been a sufferer since that time. She made a long, determined fight to get well, but despite her indomitable will and all that medical skill and tender care and nursing could accomplish, she gradually wasted away until death ended her sufferings on Wednesday morning.

That Miss Waterworth was a shining mark was again exemplified in the passing away of this sweet, charming young woman. Exceptionally talented, of a winning personality, with all who knew her as her friends, her passing is indeed a crushing blow to her family, making, as it does the first break in the family circle, as well as to all with the pleasure of her acquaintance, who loved her for her sterling worth and strength of womanly christian character. The sympathy of the community goes out to her parents, brothers and sisters.

She is survived by her parents, six sisters and two brothers.

Power in the Blood!

You will be compelled to admit that the results of S. S. S. are really amazing!

MAN'S GLORY is his strength—yet how few there are who are really as strong as they should be. The blood thins, gets weaker, blood cells wear out—general weakness and a gradual break-down of the system results.

We know there is one thing that gives power to the blood, and that is more red blood cells! S. S. S. builds them by the million! We know that as blood cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! But have you ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought of it. So-called skin eruptions—pimples, boils, blackheads, eczema all pack up and go when the flow of blood cells begins to roll in. Blood is the life-giving plasma of Nature. S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood cell builders, blood cleansers and body builders known to us mortals. Here is your opportunity! S. S. S. contains only vegetable matter and ingested, it causes S. S. S. does build red blood cells, it renews then system, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down.

Start taking S. S. S. today and get back that power in your blood!

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores or by mail. The paper also is most economical.

Be Up Against Big City Eleven Tomorrow P. M.

Clearfield Hi gridders meet their first conference for tomorrow at Altoona in a game that will be the "to be or not to be" for Clearfield. Last season this same gang set C. H. S. down with a 6-0 verdict but Coach Madison's boys have a different proposition to solve this season. "Bob" Wicker was the big cog here last year, but he must crack a stiffer and more experienced line this season to win.

The past week Coach Reed has spent brushing up the tackling and line play. The new shift has proved successful but it must be at its best to bring home the bacon tomorrow. The line has been charging and bucking with good results and altho it is not in tip top physical shape they should go wild. The backs have been working hard on all plays and have responded nicely to the brushing up. Several new plays have been added for emergencies if they arise.

No squad has been named yet Mohney, Johnston, Hughes, Mann, Thurston, Neale, Dale, McClure, Withers, Davis and Dale will be the probable linemen. With Wilson, Barrie, Bowes, Pettis, Mitchell, Snyder, Shugrue and Smith being the backs to select from.

The squad leaves about nine o'clock and will travel to and return from Altoona by cars. Those expecting to go over should get with these cars or leave here in time to arrive there at 3:00 o'clock.

Conference News
While Clearfield and Altoona are "stepping off" their first conference game, Windber will meet Johnstown, Hi, Lock Haven going out of the conference to meet Jersey Shore High.

Windber has been beaten by three teams this season, one being Lock Haven, which virtually eliminates Windber from the race. But they will make Al Jolly's team step to beat them. Clearfield and Altoona both have a clean slate, and the winner of this will go a long ways to the Conference title.

Other Games
DuBois will try to avenge that 59-0 defeat. Philipsburg handed them last year, but it is doubtful if they will mete out as stiff a set-back. Punxy goes to Winburne to meet Cooper twp. and should have little trouble emerging a winner.

Interpreting

A poet, in fact, like any other artist, must not simply transcribe nature. He must interpret her; and as she is too vast to be interpreted under all her aspects, he must select. Whether this selection is conscious or unconscious, it must be prompted not merely by his physical environment, but also by his intellectual attitude toward external nature.—F. E. Skies.

Expectations Vary

Some expect pearls with their blades. Others are glad enough to find the shells well supplied with cysts.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Greensburg—Earl Smith would have won "by a nose" of the Brooklyn League baseball team had won the National League pennant. The Dodgers loss is the cause of Smith nursing a skinned nose today. He offered to roll a grape down a cinder path for 40 feet with his nose if his favorite team lost. He paid the bet yesterday using more than a dozen grapes and losing several inches of epidermis from his proboscis.

Ambridge—Borough, county and federal officials together with several local citizens are still searching today for about $8,000 in currency still missing from a shipment of $60,500 to a bank in a mail pouch which accidentally dropped from the railroad station here onto the railroad tracks and was torn to shreds by a passenger train passing over it, according to postal authorities approximately $62,500 of the money owned by the Ambridge National Bank and the Ambridge Savings and Trust Company was recovered. The money was enroute to Pittsburgh. hsbtttrgha ttutPgbsrtTccssss0 fwe

Constipation is ruinous to children—keep yours healthy with Kellogg's Bran

Constipation undermines a child's health. It saps his energy and makes him listless. It can lead to more than 40 other serious diseases. Mothers should take immediate steps to remove safely and surely the dangerous poisons from his system.

Kellogg's Bran—because it is ALL bran—brings permanent relief. Nothing but ALL Bran can be 100 per cent effective. That is why Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is universally recommended by doctors. They know it brings results.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to give permanent relief in the most chronic cases of constipation, or your grocer returns your money. Kellogg's Bran acts on the intestines exactly as nature acts. It cures and cleans and purifies them. It makes them function naturally and regularly. It allows you to discontinue forever the use of harmful, habit-forming drugs and pills.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is a delightful surprise to the taste—particularly if one has tried ordinary unpalatable bran. Kellogg's Bran has a delicious, crisp, nut-like flavor—an exclusive flavor. It is most enjoyable with milk or cream, sprinkled over other cereals or cooked with hot cereals. Try it in bread, muffins, griddle cakes and other recipes given on every package.

Have your children eat it regularly—two table-spoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Kellogg's Bran is made at Battle Creek and sold at all grocers. It is served in individual packages by the leading hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant.

New Coats
Reflect Fashion's Whims

FAITHFUL exponents of the mode for winter, these Cloth Coats yet possess an individuality of style that is truly distinctive. Collars, cuffs and bands of soft fur bring their added charm, while stitchings and braidings also do their bit.

The trim silhouette mode is the favored mode and you'll find that most of our coats conform to this idea. Buttons, too, have their place and while it may be just one large one to hold the front of the coat there may be a myriad of them used in the trimming.

Truly, a beautiful showing we have here for you.

HURRYING FIRE BY
USING KEROSENE
IS FATAL TO EAST
END COLORED MAN

Luther MacManus, aged 35, a colored employee at the Robinson Clay Product Company's sewer pipe works, died at the Clearfield Hospital at 11 o'clock last evening of burns received two hours before when he attempted to put out a fire in the kitchen stove with kerosene.

MacManus was married and lived with his wife in one of the company houses near the sewer pipe works in Lawrence township adjoining the Fourth Ward. When he got home from his work last evening about 6 o'clock he found the stove cold and believing the fire to be out, seized a can of kerosene with which to relight the fire. He poured the kerosene on the stove and lit it. The fire spread rapidly and he fled. His wife and several neighbors rushed to the assistance of MacManus and soon succeeded in tearing the burning clothing off him and smothering the fire but not before he had been very severely burned. He died about five hours after his admission.

The remains were prepared for burial by Undertaker Leavitt and will be taken by his wife to their former home at Monroe, N. C., for burial.

MacManus was an honest, upright man and was afflicted with Sumner's disease, No. 4152 I. O. O. F.

IN "THE DIGEST'S" BIG POLL
NOW LEADING IN ELEVEN STATES

Returns From Every State Con-

Coolidge Still Polling More Than
Combined Votes of Other
Candidates

John W. Davis has increased his percentage of the popular and Electoral College vote in this week's returns of the Literary Digest's big Presidential poll as ballots from all of the forty-eight states have been received which, the Digest proclaims, "may, for the first time, be considered fairly representative of the nation as a whole."

As the Democratic percentage has risen slightly, the Republican ratio has correspondingly decreased. Of the total of nearly 2,000,000 votes, Coolidge has 1,066,214; Davis, 248,205; La Follette, 432,660, which expressed in percentages show 56 per cent. Republican, 20 per cent. Democratic, and almost 23 per cent. Progressive.

La Follette is still holding Wisconsin while Davis has increased his leadership to eleven states and President Coolidge is ahead in the other thirty-six states. La Follette is second choice in twenty-eight states with second in thirteen. In Kentucky and Oklahoma, the Democratic Charles G. Dawes, the Senatorial Campaign Fund Investigating Committee was told here today at the initial session of its probe into Senator Robert M. La Follette's "slush fund" charges.

The statistics were given by Wm. V. Hodges of Denver treasurer of the Committee, who was able to recall that one specific donation of any amount—that of $25,000 from Wm. Wrigley, Jr.

After Hodges completed his testimony a recess was taken for lunch. The morning session lasted only two hours and was conducted in a virtually deserted court room. The hearings are open to the public but only three or four women took advantage of the opportunity to listen to the proceedings.

H. H. KOHLISAAT
DIES SUDDENLY

Washington, Oct. 17 (INS).—Hermon Henry Kohlisaat, of New York, famous newspaper editor, died suddenly here today at the home of Secretary of Commerce Hoover.

BURIED HIS FATHER

J. L. McGinniss, of the Market street Auto Sales Company, attended the funeral of his father, Jerome McGinniss, at St. Mary's, Pa.

Jerome McGinniss, who had not been in good health for the past several months, suffered a stroke of apoplexy on Tuesday last and died almost instantly. When advised of his father's illness Mr. McGinniss drove across the mountain to his bedside but death had ensued before he arrived.

The deceased, a native of New York State, was 70 years of age. He was a machinist and had been employed in the car shops at St. Marys for the past twenty-five years and was a highly respected citizen. His wife preceded him to that better world in April last.

He is survived by two daughters and two sons, of whom J. L., of Clearfield, is one. The funeral takes place this Friday morning, from St. Mary's Catholic church. Interment was made in St. Mary's Catholic cemetery.

percentage of error, of course, may or may not exist, but it is noteworthy that, even granting its existence, it would make a change in the political complexion of only three States.

"California would be transferred from the Coolidge to the La Follette column," Kentucky and Oklahoma would go to the Democrats, and West Virginia, Mr. Davis' home State, would show practically a tie vote between Coolidge and Davis.

"A feature of the voting in California is that, since the tabulation published a week ago, Coolidge has received 5,149 to La Follette's 4,651, a proportion which seems to indicate a slight rise, for the week at least, in the California popularity of the Progressive candidate.

"The question as to the source of Mr. La Follette's strength, whether it came more largely from the Republican or Democratic ranks, continues to stir a good many of the political prophets and dopesters.

"In consulting the table of 'How the Same Voters Voted in 1920,' some observers of the poll have called attention to the large size of the 'Did-Not-Vote' column. In this column, it must be explained, is included both those who specify that they did not

DENIES AUTHORSHIP
OF LETTERS TO MRS.
WILLOW ON STAND

By VIN. D. SWEENEY
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)
Middleburg, Pa., Oct. 27.—Question: "Did you write this letter?" Answer: "I did not."

Eight different times this question was asked in Judge Potter's court today and each time the answer was the same. Ralph Shadel had denied authorship of the "love notes" that the defense in the trial of Mrs. Annie Willow had built its case around.

In a little less than an hour, both prosecution and defense completed their cases. Preparations were being made for the closing addresses to the jury.

It was one of the most surprising sessions of the entire trial and there was more mystery around the now famous notes alleged to have been written by Shadel to the woman, who is on trial as an accessory in the murder of her husband.

The court room was less than half filled as the youth took the stand. Mrs. Willow, accompanied by her two children, came into court with Sheriff Runkle. She took her seat behind her counsel and never once glanced at the witness. Neither did Shadel look at her. When he was not inspecting the notes he kept in eyes fixed on Attorney Ulrich, who is assisting in the prosecution.

The notes have now come forward as the biggest point in the case. Defense counsel introduced them early in the week and they were admitted as evidence. Vindication of the woman with any connection with the crime is contained in them. Defense established their authenticity by calling two bankers as hand writing experts. In rebuttal, prosecution began its attack on their Sheriff Runkle and Louis Gemberling, former county treasurer, testified that the signatures on the notes were not genuine. Today Ralph Shadel denied he had ever written them.

PRINCIPAL MUST OF THE WORKERS'
COLLEGE TO SPEAK
HERE SATURDAY EVE.

Harrisburg, Oct. 15.—A. J. Muste, Principal of Brookwood College, Katonah, New York, who will speak in Clearfield, Saturday night under the auspices of the La Follette-Wheeler Campaign Committee, was formerly a Congregational minister but resigned his church to lead the striking textile workers of Lawrence, Mass. From Muste and another young minister were making brilliant careers for themselves as pastors of two different churches in Lawrence when the historic strike broke out there about six years ago. Muste and his ministerial colleague espoused the cause of the workers. Both men finally quit their churches and became leaders of the strike.

Muste went to work in a mill and became a weaver, after the strike. Later he became secretary of the Amalgamated Textile Workers, and about two years ago, he was appointed head of the Workers' College at Katonah, which is supported by a number of trade unions, including the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor and at which the students are all young men and women who have been active in various trade unions. Principal Muste is a distinguished scholar and a teacher with a rare gift for being able to give educational talks to both large and small audiences. Mr. Muste is noted also for the dry humor and wit of his speeches.

Hartman's confession came after he had stubbornly denied all guilt in the death of Haley and had insisted he merely acted as chauffeur for "George Roth, of Columbus, O.," who he said did the shooting.

Later he admitted the story about Roth was fictitious and that he was alone when the murder and robbery was committed.

Hartman told police he had made no plans to rob the bank at Abbotstown but decided to do it while riding through there because "I was desperate and in need of money." The confessed murderer then said he had to fight with himself nearly an hour before he plucked up courage enough to enter the bank and rob the lone employee.

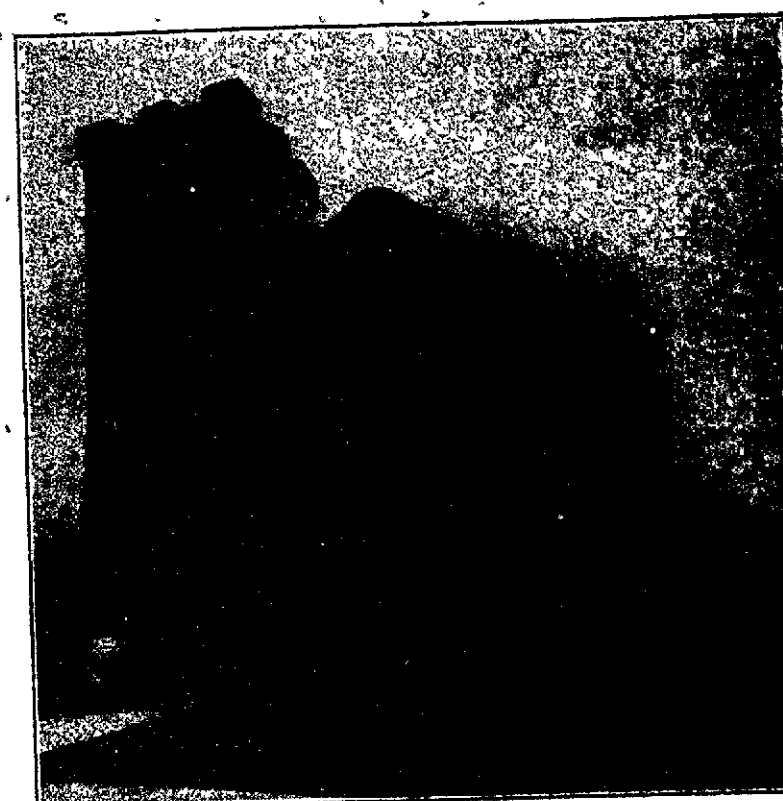

During his flight from Abbotstown he told how he looked back and found State Trooper Haley in hot pursuit and rapidly overtaking him.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 17. (INS).—Philip A. Hartman, of Rochester, N. Y., whose home is at Annville, Lebanon county, Pa., voluntarily surrendered to Reading police last night and after a grueling examination, when he offered an alibi for himself and discrepancies were found, broke down and confessed that he had shot and killed State Trooper Francis L. Haley, at Caledonia Park, last Tuesday afternoon.

Hartman said he had robbed the Abbotstown bank of $1,400 and then fled across the mountains, hoping to double up on his trail and return to Aspers, where he has a brother. However, Haley appeared on the road and he shot and killed him.

High School At St. Marys
Burned Last Night; Fire
Was Of Unknown Origin

Ridgway, Pa., Oct. 17 (INS).—The St. Mary's High School which houses two hundred and fifty pupils was completely destroyed by fire last night with a loss estimated at $40,000. The fire which was of unknown origin was first discovered by residents near the school and the flames had gained so great headway that the volunteer firemen confined their efforts to saving nearby structures. A new high school is in the course of construction.

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE BIG LEGION EVENT

ALL DAY PROGRAM

The Central Pennsylvania district has always been a class A section for baseball, football and other sports. Champions in all branches have displayed their wares in different towns in the region. But there is one sport that has not advanced very far above mediocrity. That pastime is boxing. The champions have heretofore always kept close to the large cities in the eastern and western ends of the State.

Realizing that the opportunity to see high class boxing in Pennsylvania has been limited to the fans of the cities, the John Ashley Dennis, Jr., Post, No. 437, American Legion of Philippsburg, Pa., has decided to stage an extraordinary boxing show on Armistice Day, November 11th. The best is none too good for the royal fans of the coal region and the veterans have kept this thought uppermost in mind when selecting the scrappers.

For the main attraction in the wind up bout they have secured that peerless leader of the middleweights, Harry Greb, of Pittsburgh, champion of the world. His opponent will be Otto Hughes, of Philadelphia, former middleweight champion of the U. S. Navy and a man who has fought his way to the top. The semi-windup will bring together two heavies—Bob Martin, champion of the A. E. F., and Ray Vauliermont, of Philadelphia. Martin has won over such men as Frank Moran, Gunboat Smith, and fought a draw with Bill Brennan. He fought a draw with a topnotcher among the boys. Vauliermont is a strapping big youth who is coming along fast and will make Martin step every second of the fight.

Another bout with action spread all over it will see Dick Conlon, of Allentown, premier lightweight of this region mixing with Pedro Campo, champion lightweight of the Philippines. Campo has been fighting in the

FROM VANDERGRIFT

A Chevrolet car driven by a man from Vandergrift, Pa., who had two women companions, crashed through the broken iron guard fence and went over the wing wall at the entrance to the Second street bridge and down onto the New York Central tracks this morning about 6 o'clock.

The party was traveling from Vandergrift to Virginia, stopping here last evening. They decided on an early start despite the fog and were traveling down Second street intending to go out Bridge street to the Lakes to the Sea highway at Third street. It was so foggy that the driver, also unfamiliar with the road, was unable to see the blind turn into Bridge street and while attempting to locate same ran across the opening into Bridge street and continued on over the wall down onto the tracks.

The car shoved through the battered old iron fence on the wall and dropped about four feet on its nose onto the railroad tracks. By one of those fortunate circumstances which appear to guard motorists generally the occupants of the car escaped injury and the machine itself came through with but a small measure of damage considering the tumble it took.

The spot where the accident occurred is about the most dangerous one about the town. This morning's accident makes the third of the kind at the same place within a month. The iron guard fence is now a complete wreck and the County Commissioners should be importuned to replace it at once with a substantial barrier.

LOCAL MAN ESCAPES
FROM ROCKVIEW

Police of many Pennsylvania cities have been enlisted into the search for two prisoners who escaped from Rock view prison farm of the Western Penitentiary at Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon. The convicts are James C. Creggan, aged 18, of Turtle Creek, serving four to eight years for robbery in Allegheny county, and Howard Ardery, aged 22, serving two to four years for breaking, entering and larceny in Clearfield county.

Mystery surrounds the escape. They were working in the cell block and quit at 5 p. m., and had their supper. From 5:30 to 8 p. m. is the recreation period and when the roll was called at 8 p. m. their disappearance was discovered.

"JOLLY JESTER" MADE
A BIG HIT HERE

The Clearfield County Tuberculosis Society, which recently secured the Jolly Jester health clown to campaign Clearfield county on a campaign to educate the children of the county in preventive measures for the combating of the spread of that disease, have checked up on the trip of the Jolly Jester and are much pleased to be able to state that no less than 14,575 children attended the different meetings where the Jolly Jester was on the job, and where the influence and impression made by the health clown will long remain an influence for good.

The following towns were visited and benefited: Coalport, Irons, Mahaffay, Curwensville, Woodland, Madera, Houtdale, Ocoola, Winburne, and Grassflat.

vote and those who failed to mention their political allegiance in 1920.

A more complicated tabulation, kept in the Digest's polling room, shows in more detail the trend of the vote. Thus, in California, according to this tabulation, Mr. La Follette draws his large vote chiefly from 12,862 former Democrats and 32,188 former Republicans, while 4,883 former Democrats are registered as voting for Coolidge, and 1,569 former Republicans are in the Democratic column.

Turning to an eastern state, New York, where La Follette has shown considerable strength, it appears that he draws 28,804 votes from former Republicans to 11,654 from former Democrats.

In Iowa, he is credited with 11,137 formerly Republican votes and 8,887 formerly Democratic. In Wisconsin, his home State, his present vote includes ballots from 20,306 former Republicans and 4,094 former Democrats; in Pennsylvania, 12,965 former Republicans and 3,791 former Democrats.

In this connection it must be remembered that 1920 was a strongly Republican year, so that there is small indication in these figures that the Progressive candidate's strength is being contributed exclusively by one party, as several partisans have announced.

It is also noteworthy that, in spite of Mr. La Follette's large vote, he has so far carried only the State of Wisconsin, with California added, pointing that the present poll has a somewhat larger percentage of error in favor of the Republicans than was shown in the smaller poll of 1920.

A Democratic paper finds in the registration of the previous affiliations of the poll voters, which is now then as 1,076,905 Republicans to 1,251 Democrats, a sign that no Democrat could possibly win in the election.

It may be said, also, that no Democrat can win in the election unless a considerable number of the Republicans of 1920 change their politics.

The citizenry of the country was divided, roughly, in 1920 between 9,000,000 Republicans and 9,000,000 Democratic voters, with only a small third-party vote, less than 1,000,000 for the Socialist candidate to complicate the issue. What shifts, then, are now being made from Republican to Democratic ranks, or from Democrats to Republican, that will show that the verdict of 1920 is to be reversed, or repeated?

A glance at the table comparing the 1920 and 1924 columns shows a Republican increase in thirty-two of the States, while sixteen show a decreasing Republican vote. Ten States, on the other hand, show a Democratic increase over 1920, while a loss in the Democratic vote during the last four years is indicated in 38 States. Some of these gains and losses are very large; some so small as to mean little.

Among the more significant changes, there appear to have been Republican losses in Iowa, Illinois, Pennsylvania, California, Minnesota, and Wisconsin. Republican gains are indicated in many of the States of the "Solid South," where such increases will, in all probability, have no effect on the election whatever, and also in Kansas, New York, and Michigan. Aside from ordinarily Democratic States, the Democrats appear to have increased their voting strength in West Virginia.

In presenting the views of Republican and Democratic editors on the general accuracy of their polls The Digest concludes with the comment of a Nebraska editor:

"No straw vote," the editor states, "is actually satisfactory—the losing side. However, the Digest vote of 1920 was amazingly accurate, and if we remember right, there was the same doubting on the part of the same editors."

Notables Present at Ball Given by Legion

When the Legion gives a party, it generally has the company of most folks worth while, and such proved to be the case at the grand ball given at the state convention of the Legion at Pittsfield, Mass., recently, which the following personages attended: Gov. Channing H. Cox, Mayor James M. Curley of Boston, Senator David I. Walsh, Maj. Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, Commander Hann. G. A. R., Mrs. Elizabeth O'Brien, department president, American Legion Auxiliary; Congressman Allen T. Treadway, Congressman Louis A. Frothingham, Rear Admiral de Steuben, U. S. N.; Commissioner Richard Flynn, and some five hundred more of our leading citizens.

LESSON NO. 6

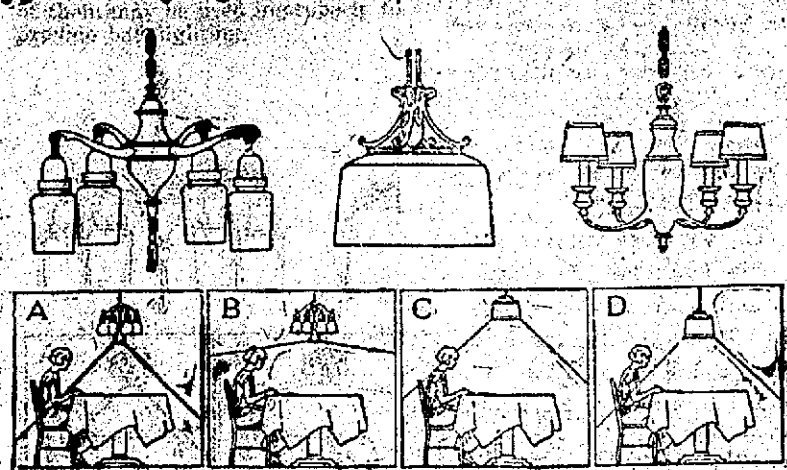

LIGHTING THE DINING ROOM

In some ways the dining room is the most important of the living room. The living room has many different uses, but the dining room is used except at meal times. In the living room the furniture is moved about and changed, but in the dining room the arrangement of furniture rarely changes.

The dining table is in the center of the room, and it is the center of interest. It should be the most brightly lighted object in the whole room. There are a number of different kinds of fixtures which may be hung from the ceiling to provide good lighting, and almost all of these may be used properly to provide the lighting.

(C) the glare from the bulb is directly in the eyes of everyone seated at the table, but if it is put down closer to the table, as at (D) the fixture completely hides the bulb, and we have excellent dining room lighting without glare. For most fixtures it is best to see that the bottom of the shades is not more than 26 inches above the table for (A) and 24 inches above the table for (D). Where candle fixtures are used, shades are needed not only to protect the eyes from the glare, but to reflect some of the light which would otherwise go up to the ceiling or down on the table.

Whatever the kind of fixture, it is important that the eyes of anyone seated at the table be protected against the glare of the bulbs which furnish the light. There are two ways to do this. 1. Be sure that the shades are long enough, and of the right shape. For example, the next picture shows a fixture on which one bulb (A) is well shaded and the other bulb (B) is badly shaded.

The shade which is narrower at the bottom protects the eyes of the person at the table. 2. For a given shade, be sure the fixture is low enough over the table (but not so low as to be in the way or make it impossible to see the person sitting opposite).

Now look at the fixture in (C) and (D). When this fixture is as high above the table as it is at need bulbs with a total of from 100 to 200 watts.

OTHER LIGHTING

Bracket fixtures on the walls and candlesticks on the buffet may be used to add decoration, provided they are well shaded and are not so bright as to be annoying or to produce glare and eye-strain. When they are used, the bulbs should not be larger than 15 or 25 watts.

Convenience outlets should be installed for electric appliances. If used on the dining table, a convenience outlet may be placed in the floor under the table, or on the underside of the table itself, so that the unsightly cord need not hang from a bulb socket and cause one part of the lighting fixture to be dark. Duplex convenience outlets which permit the use of two appliances may be installed for practically the same cost as the older style single outlets.

In the Courts

Attorneys Liveright and Chase, on behalf of The Farris Engineering Co., of Pittsburgh, entered suit in Prothonotary Bialston's office yesterday against The Pyramid Stone Manufacturing Co. of DuBois, in an effort to recover $7,793.45, which the plaintiffs allege is due in a bill of particulars of which the following is the sense:

The Farris people had a contract for the erection of a bridge in Johnstown. On August 30, 1922, they contracted with the DuBois concern for the supplying of forty-eight railing slabs, to be made out of a 1-2-4 concrete mix. The slabs were received at Johnstown about January, 1923, covered with ice, were put in place on the bridge. When the ice thawed the slabs were found to be faulty and according to specifications. By the reason of the defective slabs the sum of $13,613.33 was withheld from the plaintiff by the city of Johnstown for one year, while the slabs were removed at great expense and replaced by the plaintiff. They ask reimbursement to the amount of $6,342.76 for this removal, $634.28 interest on the deferred contract payment and $1643 the amount paid the defendants for the slabs, which payment was made before the slabs were found to be defective.

Good bakings are becoming a matter of fact in this country. Years ago, the woman who had success on bake day was rare. Now, most anyone can be proud of their bakings—the young bride, the school-girl and all.

Calumet Baking Powder has made all this possible, it is sitting on the pantry shelf in millions of homes, that's the secret of baking success—the real reason for uniform and wholesome food.

If you are among the few who are not familiar with the results obtained from using Calumet, try it—learn the difference between the results that come from using a perfect leavener and those that are experienced when using unreliable brands.

To follow the directions on the Calumet label is to invite success. You must not use as much as you do of many other kinds. You know Calumet has greater leavening strength than many other brands—it goes farther—makes more bakings—the last spoonful is as good as the first.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

The gay and festive bootlegger appears to be operating and "going to the wall" in many other places in addition to Clearfield county. And while a lot of money is being spent to corral these violators of the law, the friends of prohibition claim that not only are they enforcing the law but the enforcement thereof is "paying its own way." At least that is what Federal Prohibition Commissioner Haynes told the Dayton, Ohio Council of Churches in an address he made them a day or two ago. In speaking of enforcement and its blunders and accomplishments, Commissioner Haynes says:

"Over 65,000 bootleggers and moonshiners arrested by Federal agents last year can testify that prohibition is being enforced. This number does not, of course, include the many thousands of arrests made by State, county and other local officials.

"Prohibition has not been a drain on the public purse. The appropriation for enforcement of the Prohibition

Law last fiscal year was $8,350,000. Fines imposed on convicted violators were over $7,000,000, more than $5,000,000 of which has already been collected and turned into the United States Treasury.

Brewers paid into the treasury nearly $1,000,000 last year in compromise of civil liabilities against them. To this should be added the amount of tax penalties imposed on violators, exact figures for which are not yet available. The bootlegger is paying his own fare to prison. Prohibition is not intended to produce revenue from fines. It is, however, paying its way in this respect.

There is infinitely less drinking now than before Prohibition. Certain groups may be drinking more, but they are small in comparative numbers. The good order obtaining at all large gatherings during the last year is proof of the decreased use of beverage liquors. Our streets are practically free from drunks.

To the average thoughtful person argument is not necessary to prove that enforcement of the prohibition law is effective. Any one, anywhere, can see this for himself. But there is so much loose talking and loose writing about this subject that un-informed and unthinking people immediately conclude that prohibition is responsible for all the ills of the Nation.

There is practically no open and above-board drinking anywhere, and what drinking is done is so guarded and done so surreptitiously that much more quickly than through the slow natural process. Many other diseases, it is expected, can be prevented or cured by the "magic light," these including convulsions in children, chronic tonsillitis, rheumatic affections and, at early stages, tuberculosis.

"The home manufacture of liquor has been practically eliminated, and with the augmentation of the Coast Guard for patrolling the coasts, the smuggling problem soon will be solved. The greatest remaining problem, the curtailment of the diversion of industrial alcohol for beverage use, is being successfully met."

Scientists with their ultra violet electric rays are now invading the barnyard and while confidently expecting to be able to produce much better cattle by its use in the near future while already its beneficial influence has had a startling effect on the growth and development of young chickens.

It is expected that the subjecting of chicks to the ultra-violet rays will, in addition to curing and preventing diseases, expedite growth to such an extent that even in cold climates birds can be brought to the "broiler" size weeks earlier than now, while egg production will be increased and made more uniform, summer and winter, while the hatching period will be reduced from three weeks to two weeks.

The ray is also bringing startling results in the treatment of rickets and other diseases of childhood.

Under the influence of baths in ultra-violet rays broken bones mend

Just what takes place when a living organism is exposed to ultra-violet rays is not understood, but some mysterious process is set in motion by which the results noted are achieved. Gland action is stimulated and the rest follows as a matter of course. The miracles are accomplished by the power of concentrated sunlight—that is what the ultra-violet rays amount to in simple terms.

Many Buttons

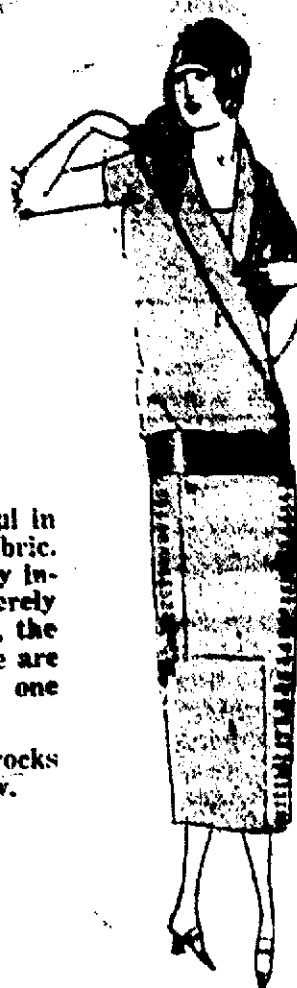

Buttons to the right, buttons to the left—buttons everywhere. That's the thing for the new Autumn dresses. And the wide belts—hung at a little below the waistline—add a touch to the women's dresses that is entirely new this season.

We have some beautiful creations, beautiful in their richness of design and ideal selection of fabric. And the showing is so comprehensive that many individual tastes may be met. There are the severely plain tailored Jersey dresses for the school girl, the business woman or for street wear. Then, there are the frocks for the more formal occasion when one avoids the plain and enters the more frivolous.

A little time devoted to our showing of frocks will be a delightful experience for you tomorrow.

20,000 DEATH SENTENCES

One would expect considerable excitement and action if 20,000 non-criminals were given a death sentence in one year. Something almost as startling appears to be true, and yet little excitement is shown except spasmodically or by special groups of citizens.

"According to statistics," writes one person who is excited, "twenty thousand persons in the United States, who today are in the full vigor of life and health, are doomed to meet untimely deaths within the next 12 months. They will be the victims of speed maniacs, drunkards and children at the steering wheels of motor cars. Of this number, the lives of 90 per cent could be saved if the government would act with the same promptitude in taking protective measures that it would be a similar number of sheep or cattle threatened with destruction."

The reprieve which the writer of those words asks for the 20,000 doomed citizens is a national licensing system for all drivers of motor cars, and the appointment of regional boards to investigate all accidents and promptly revoke the licenses of incompetent and unsafe drivers. He would have dealers in motor supplies required to examine and register the government licenses before making sales to persons operating motor cars. Thus a driver without a license would be caught promptly. Stolen cars could be discovered more quickly under such a system, too.

It sounds like a more sweeping and drastic regulation than many citizens want, since it involves federal action. But strict licensing systems in individual states might well be based on some such plan, with all the states co-operating in the enactment of uniform license laws.

THOUSANDS OF BUSES

Nearly 1,600 new motor bus lines have been started in the United States this year. That means several thousand busses, for they average more than four to a line. The new investment in such vehicles is estimated at $30,000,000. Added to the bus lines already operating, they make an impressive addition to the nation's transportation system.

It is a dignified and commodious addition, too. Many of the new busses are nearly as large as trolley cars, and fitted out with an elegance and comfort unheard of in the past.

Unfortunately these big, heavy equipages are hard on roads, but not nearly so hard as trucks, for they are nearly always fitted with pneumatic tires and springs that prevent severe jolting. Their worst fault is an occasional tendency to crowd ordinary motor cars off the road. This is almost inevitable on narrow strips of paving, because of the width of the busses.

They have come to stay, at any rate. They fulfill a general need and the public welcomes them. The roads, therefore, will have to be adapted to them.

WHAT KIND OF BROADCASTING?

The United States has several hundred radio broadcasting stations, with a wide diversity of ownership and control, though subject broadly to government supervision. England has only a dozen, all operated by one company and strictly controlled by the government. Which type is this country to have in the future?

The present tendency is toward high-power stations, owned and operated in groups by large corporations. Plans are going forward now to make such stations far more powerful, link them in larger groups and develop broadcasting on a national scale, for the important programs to make them available for the whole country.

The government is disposed to allow this, just as it allows large groupings of railroads—but always under the same condition of governmental supervision.

The public is recognized as final arbiter. It can have big, national broadcasting or little, local broadcasting, whichever it prefers. Or it can have both together, if the radio experts are able to work out a compromise system by which neither will interfere unduly with the other. This seems to be the most desirable solution.

ISN'T THIS YOUR PROBLEM?

"I intend to save money every month but somehow it just melts away and at the end of the month there's nothing left to save."

Why not reverse things and take out a fixed sum on pay day and put it to work in an interest bearing account at this bank? Live on the rest of your salary and you'll experience the self respect and pleasure of getting ahead.

In other words, pay yourself first. It makes a world of difference in one's prosperity account.

TOO MANY MEDALS

By FLORENCE DAVIES

You wondered if her were a comic opera hero or the veteran of a hundred wars, when you saw him coming down the street in a lattered uniform, his chest literally covered with medals.

The facts proved that he wasn't exactly either, but that he had done more than his share of fighting in his day and lived gloriously in memories of the past, his medals on his chest to keep those memories bright.

But they were only memories, for today his chief business in life seemed to be wearing the visible tokens of his past achievements about the country for all to see.

Instantly he reminded us of the old man who must have started an autobiography album as a boy, and whose passion for getting signatures finally got the better of him.

It's safe to say that almost every city editor in the country knows him, this old man whose autobiography album finally grew to a mighty ledger, which he has to lunge around on a sort of go-cart, or stand on wheels, and which he lugs laboriously to his shoulder when he climbs the stairs to the edit's office.

He's to be pitied all over the continent with his ridiculous record book, getting the signatures of the great people he's wanted to tell the world about it.

At least the man with the medals lived in the glory of his own past.

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE LEGION EVENT

Windups at Philadelphia and has met such men as Johnny Mealey, Joe Tippitz, Danny Kramer and Ray Mitchell. Preceding the three main bouts will be two preliminary fights between some fast featherweights.

The boxing show comes at the conclusion of a day of celebrating. A big parade in the morning of all the veterans of the coal region will be followed by a football game in the afternoon. Seats for the boxing match will be from two to five dollars and will be placed on sale in different towns in a few days. Mail orders accompanied by check or money order to the American Legion, Philadelphia, Pa., will receive prompt attention.

For Stained Fingers

Lemon juice is the simplest thing to use on fingers stained from sink line cigarettes.

SOMETHING NEW IN FILMS AT DRIGGS TONIGHT

Paramount's first full length color picture, "Wanderer of the Wasteland," photographed by the Technicolor process, certainly offers an opportunity for a new kind of appeal.

Being a melodrama of the old west, it is a visual treat to the Grand Canyon, New Mexico, and the rich shadows of the desert.

A good many of us suffer from just this kind of false glory. It's a perfectly excusable trait in the school of life. The colors add value to the story, but they also add to the interest.

It has often been said that natural colors destroy one's attention to the story—that through their appeal to the eye, they are not projected for the purposes of the story. Rather do they make the characters convincing and life-like through projecting them as recognizable human beings. It is almost as if they could talk, lifted, as they are, from the shadow world of black and whites which mark the usual film.

Of course the picture had to carry a substantial plot—a plot convincing in logic and treatment to prevent its appeal to such advantage. The deep browns, grays, and reds—in all their shades—give the film a tremendous appeal. Yet the interest does not wander from the story because it has meaning and movement. This being the first western ever filmed in natural colors, it raises the question whether it might not be advisable to film all "exterior" pictures by the same process.

"Wanderer of the Wasteland" would have been a picturesque western had it been photographed in black and white—but the natural colors enhance its value—and make it exceptionally vivid and compelling.

Way to Treat a Lady

George Elliott, forty-one-year-old laborer, according to the divorce bill of Mrs. Floessie Elliott, filed in Superior court, became enraged at her on one occasion and kicked the wind-shield of their automobile. Other allegations of cruelty are made. From a news item in the Seattle Times.

Hit White Bread

The sale of white bread throughout England has decreased 50 per cent in the last two years due to the repeated warnings by doctors that white bread is a likely cause of cancer. There has been a corresponding increase in the sale of wholewheat bread.

Word's Real Meaning

When we say "going downstairs," we really mean, in the phrase as used rightly, "going up." "Down" is derived from the Saxon word "dun" which means a hill or upland. The opposite to "dun" is "a-dun" so what we should say when a descent is meant, is "going a-downstairs."

Hottest Known Flame

The hottest flame known to scientists is said to be about 30,000 degrees. Astronomers hope to make use of it in determining the causes of the lights that are thrown off by the stars.

Your Sunday Dinners

Getting Sunday dinner planned is quite a thing for you just now and we're right here to help you. You will find that we have most of the vegetables that are seasonable and the fruits, as well.

FRESH FISH AND OYSTERS

We're getting fresh fish and oysters every day and you'll see that they're a little better than average.

PICKLING VEGETABLES

Now's the time to take advantage of the things in your garden and by the addition of a few things we have here for you, you'll be able to cut down your condiment bills materially thru the winter.

WILL BE BURIED HERE

Mrs. Catherine Blackwood Shaffer, widow of Benjamin Shaffer, deceased who has been very much of an invalid for the past two or three years, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) S. D. Bailey, South Park, Phillipsburg on Wednesday afternoon, October 15, 1924, at 3 o'clock. She was born in Virginia on Feb. 15, 1847, making her age 77 years and 8 months. In her young womanhood she was united in marriage at Tyrone to Benjamin Shaffer, who died in 1884. Prior to coming to Phillipsburg, two years ago, she had resided at Woodland and Clearfield. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church, a member of her life, having been a member of Trinity congregation before removing to Phillipsburg.

She is survived by one daughter and one son, viz Mrs. (Dr.) S. D. Bailey, Phillipsburg and Harry P. Shaffer, of Farrell, Pa. Five grandchildren also survive.

The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Dr. S. D. Bailey, at Phillipsburg with interment in Hillcrest cemetery, Clearfield, Pa.

Careless Letter Writers

It is said that 200,000,000 pieces of mail yearly receive "directory service," which means that postal employees must take time from the regular handling and dispatching of mail in the "clear" to provide correct addresses. This service costs approximately $300 daily in the city of New York alone.

Thoughtlessness to Blame

No very few people seem to be unkind that it makes you wonder why there should be all the unkindness in the world.—J. I. Backrose.

First People in Britain

Geologists are not yet agreed when and by whom Britain was first peopled. Real knowledge began with the two Celtic invasions, that of the Golds, in the latter part of the Bronze age, and that of the Brytons and Belgae in the Iron age. By the time of Julius Caesar all the inhabitants of Britain, except perhaps some tribes in the North, were Celts in speech and customs.

Enjoying Ordinary Things

It is certainly a very important thing to learn how to enjoy ordinary things, and to be able to relish your things, without the transport of some passion, or the gratification of some appetite.—Steele.

Better to Believe

As to the deeds of the gods, it seems holier and more reverent to believe than to know.—Tacitus.

"Sweeping" the Clouds

The failed performance of the old woman of the nursery rhyme who "swept" the cobwebs out of the sky has a scientific parallel in the ability of aviators under some conditions to brush small clouds out of the way by flying through them rapidly, says London Tit-Bits. A fair-sized summer cumulus or fair-weather cloud may sometimes be dispersed by about twenty flights through it.

Reorganization Of U. S. Money Making Plant Is Announced By Mellon

Washington, Oct. 16 (INS)—After a two-year investigation Secretary of the Treasury Mellon announced today a complete reorganization of the United States Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the world's largest money making plant.

Work at the bureau has been divided into three groups, each under the supervision of an assistant director. Two new assistant directors, John J. Diviny, former Superintendent of Work, and Clark R. Long, former assistant chief of public debt accounts, were appointed effective today.

The bureau of engraving and printing has been a constant source of trouble to the Treasury Department for several years. Secretary Mellon finally appointed Major Kirby, an army officer, as acting director of the bureau and instructed him to reorganize the plant.

Let's Wife

On the island of St. Helena there is a curious and interesting rock called Lot's Wife. It stands erect on the crest of a ridge that runs across the barren and uninhabited part of the island, and it is supposed to be a mass of lava long ago forced up through a crack in the coast. It is nearly or quite 300 feet high and when seen from a distance bears a striking resemblance to a draped human figure of tremendous size.

Eagles Have Long Life

The biological survey says that some species of eagles have been known to live a hundred years. From records kept by the zoological societies of London it is shown that specimens in captivity lived to be forty-two, forty-six and fifty-five years of age.

Hindu Delicacy

A delicacy much prized by the Hindu consists of bamboo seeds, roasted and afterward mixed with honey.

Aspiration

When you are aspiring to the highest place it is honorable to reach the second or even the third rank.

Convenient for Travelers

Another comfort for the traveling man is the introduction of fountain pens, claimed to little posts, in hotel public writing.

Such Is Human Nature

Lots of men would never think of trespassing if they didn't see a notice to the effect that it wasn't allowed.

Superfluous Hair Rid FOREVER

—Or No Cost

Why tolerate unsightly hair on your face, neck, arms or legs when it can be removed quickly and safely, roots and all? Don't use expensive electric treatments, nor be a slave to a razor or ordinary depilatories which merely burn off the surface hairs, and often strengthen the hair roots. A marvelous new magnetic balsam which is applied almost as easily as cold cream, loosens every unsightly hair and gently lifts it out, root and all, leaving the skin healthy, clear and beautiful. No mass, no odor, no discomfort. Absolutely hairless. Try it on this guarantee—that it will absolutely rid you of superfluous hair forever—or no cost. Karma, as this new discovery is called, may be purchased at all good dealers, such as Cecil R. Bloom's Drug Store.

Understanded. All persons having claims or demands against said estate shall make known the same, and all persons indebted to the said decedent are requested to make payment to the undersigned without delay.

My Beauty

Is All Due to Beauty Helps
By Edna Wallace Hopper

Edna Wallace Hopper

I was a plain girl with little distinction. I made myself a famous beauty. Now, after 35 years, as a stage star, I remain a beauty still. The thousands who see me daily on the stage know that I look 19.

When I was a girl, my rich mother took me on a world search for the supreme beauty helps. Those helps made me famous. Since then I have kept in touch with every new discovery I have made many trips to France. So what I was and what I am are due to scientific help.

Now women have convinced me that I should share these millions of girls and women want what I have gained. So I have combined all the helps I have discovered in four preparations, with 52 ingredients. And I have arranged so that all druggists and toilet counters offer them to all who wish.

One is a liquid cleanser which I call "Facial Youth." Lucie Lantelme, the famous Parisian beauty, first told me what it did. Now great beauty experts the world over are advising this formula. No other cleanser that man has discovered does what this cleanser does.

of Bellefonte, were guests in the Karstetter home on South Liberty street several days this week.

Hundreds of people are stopping in front of the large show window at the Holton & Bonisall garage in order to view the hunting scenes displayed therein. The decoration plan is an original one and illustrates the old time rail fence the tent stamps and roots of forest life. All kinds of animals are on display and in a natural position. An India leopard, mounted by Horace W. Hilton of Olanta, is an art in taxidermy as well as numerous other animals mounted by him. In the window can be seen squirrels, black, gray and red; opossums, minks, foxes, wildcat, weasels, birds of various plumage and in fact there is nothing lacking even to the natural woods trimmings but is found there. The window when lighted up at night by red and other lights make the scene one to be remembered by the men of the chase for many a day to come.

LUTHERAN CHURCH NOTICE

On Sunday, Oct. 19th in the following churches, New Millport 10:45 a. m., Olanta 3:00 p. m. and Curwensville 7:30 p. m. we will have Harvest Home services and Holy Communion. The fruit and other things that is brought to the church will be sent to the Jaysville Orphans Home. Every body is welcome to come and enjoy the services with us.

PASSING OF FINE YOUNG WOMAN

The remains of Miss Margaret second daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Waterworth, who passed away after a long illness at Saranac Lake, N. Y., on Wednesday last, were brought to Clearfield on the 4:30 B. & O. P. train yesterday afternoon and taken to the family home on South Second street.

The funeral occurred this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Francis Catholic church where a high requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father M. A. Ryan. Interment was made in Calvary Cemetery.

Margaret Waterworth was born in Clearfield in April 1901, and was therefore in her 24th year. She attended St. Francis High School in the class of 1919. Following her graduation she attended Trinity College at Washington, D. C., from which institution she graduated with honors in 1921.

Exceptionally talented and ambitious she took up the teaching profession and taught in the High School at Chubb Mill, Md. during 1921-22 and had been in the term of 1922-23 in an excellent position at the High School at St. Henry, Ohio, where her health failed. Tuberculosis developed and she had been a sufferer since that time. She made a long, determined fight to get well, but despite her indomitable will and all that medical skill and tender care and nursing could accomplish, she gradually wasted away until death ended her sufferings on Wednesday morning.

That Miss Waterworth was a shining mark was again exemplified in the passing away of this sweet, charming young woman. Exceptionally talented, of a winning personality, with all who knew her as her friends, her passing is indeed a crushing blow to her family, making, as it does the first break in the family circle, as well as to all with the pleasure of her acquaintance, who loved her for her sterling worth and strength of womanly christian character. The sympathy of the community goes out to her parents, brothers and sisters.

She is survived by her parents, six sisters and two brothers.

Power in the Blood!

You will be compelled to admit that the results of S. S. S. are really amazing!

MAN'S GLORY is his strength—yet how few there are who are really as strong as they should be. The blood thins, gets weaker, blood cells wear out—general weakness and a gradual break-down of the system results.

We know there is one thing that puts power in the blood, and that is more red blood cells! S. S. S. builds them by the million! We know that as blood cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! But have you ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought of it. So-called skin eruptions—pimples, boils, blackheads, eczema all pack up and go when the tide of blood cells begins to roll in. Blood is the life-fighting plasma of Nature. S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood cell builders, blood cleansers and body builders known to us mortals. Here is your opportunity! S. S. S. contains only vegetable matter and red blood cells, cause S. S. S. does build red blood cells, it renews then nature, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down.

Start taking S. S. S. today and get back that power in your blood!

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores or by mail. The paper also is most economical.

Be Up Against Big City Eleven Tomorrow P. M.

Clearfield Hi gridders meet their first conference for tomorrow at Altoona in a game that will be the "to be or not to be" for Clearfield. Last season this same gang set C. H. S. down with a 6-0 verdict but Coach Madison's boys have a different proposition to solve this season. "Bob" Wicker was the big cog here last year, but he must crack a stiffer and more experienced line this season to win.

The past week Coach Reed has spent brushing up the tackling and line play. The new shift has proved successful but it must be at its best to bring home the bacon tomorrow. The line has been charging and bucking with good results and altho it is not in tip top physical shape they should go wild. The backs have been working hard on all plays and have responded nicely to the brushing up. Several new plays have been added for emergencies if they arise.

No squad has been named yet Mohney, Johnston, Hughes, Mann, Thurston, Neale, Dale, McClure, Withers, Davis and Dale will be the probable linemen. With Wilson, Barrie, Bowes, Pettis, Mitchell, Snyder, Shugrue and Smith being the backs to select from.

The squad leaves about nine o'clock and will travel to and return from Altoona by cars. Those expecting to go over should get with these cars or leave here in time to arrive there at 3:00 o'clock.

Conference News
While Clearfield and Altoona are "stepping off" their first conference game, Windber will meet Johnstown, Hi, Lock Haven going out of the conference to meet Jersey Shore High.

Windber has been beaten by three teams this season, one being Lock Haven, which virtually eliminates Windber from the race. But they will make Al Jolly's team step to beat them. Clearfield and Altoona both have a clean slate, and the winner of this will go a long ways to the Conference title.

Other Games
DuBois will try to avenge that 59-0 defeat. Phillipsburg handed them last year, but it is doubtful if they will mete out as stiff a set-back. Punxy goes to Winburne to meet Cooper twp. and should have little trouble emerging a winner.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 16 (INS).—Mrs. Ella M. George of Beaver Falls, State President of the W. C. T. U. for eighteen years was reelected at today's session of the fiftieth annual convention being held here.

Interpreting

A poet, in fact, like any other artist, must not simply transcribe nature. He must interpret her; and as she is too vast to be interpreted under all her aspects, he must select. Whether this selection is conscious or unconscious, it must be prompted not merely by his physical environment, but also by his intellectual attitude toward external nature.—F. E. Skies.

Expectations Vary

Some expect pearls with their bladders. Others are glad enough to find the shells well supplied with cysts.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Greensburg.—Earl Smith would have won "by a nose" of the Brooklyn League baseball team had won the National League pennant. The Dodgers loss is the cause of Smith nursing a skinned nose today. He offered to roll a grape down a cinder path for 40 feet with his nose if his favorite team lost. He paid the bet yesterday using more than a dozen grapes and losing several inches of epidermis from his proboscis.

Ambridge.—Borough, county and federal officials together with several local citizens are still searching today for about $8,000 in currency still missing from a shipment of $60,500 to a bank in a mail pouch which accidentally dropped from the railroad station here onto the railroad tracks and was torn to shreds by a passenger train passing over it, according to postal authorities approximately $62,500 of the money owned by the Ambridge National Bank and the Ambridge Savings and Trust Company was recovered. The money was enroute to Pittsburgh. hsbtttrgha ttutPgbsrtTccssss0 fwe

Constipation undermines a child's health. It saps his energy and makes him listless. It can lead to more than 40 other serious diseases. Mothers should take immediate steps to remove safely and surely the dangerous poisons from his system.

Kellogg's Bran—because it is ALL bran—brings permanent relief. Nothing but ALL Bran can be 100 per cent effective. That is why Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is universally recommended by doctors. They know it brings results.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to give permanent relief in the most chronic cases of constipation, or your grocer returns your money. Kellogg's Bran acts on the intestines exactly as nature acts. It cures and cleans and purifies them. It makes them function naturally and regularly. It allows you to discontinue forever the use of harmful, habit-forming drugs and pills.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is a delightful surprise to the taste—particularly if one has tried ordinary unpalatable bran. Kellogg's Bran has a delicious, crisp, nut-like flavor—an exclusive flavor. It is most enjoyable with milk or cream, sprinkled over other cereals or cooked with hot cereals. Try it in bread, muffins, griddle cakes and other recipes given on every package.

Have your children eat it regularly—two table-spoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Kellogg's Bran is made at Battle Creek and sold at all grocers. It is served in individual packages by the leading hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant.

DIRECTORS OF THE STATE TUBERCULOSIS SOCIETY PLAN WORK

Harrisburg, Oct. 17.—Directors of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society who called upon Governor Pinchot at the capitol today to thank him for his assistance in the Christmas Seal sale and the tuberculosis prevention movement, heard the Governor pledge himself anew to the support of this life-saving work and his promise "to assist this human conservation effort in every way possible."

The directors at their quarterly meeting today considered the county tuberculosis hospital situation which has been muddled by the recent decision of the Schuylkill county court holding the Act of 1921 unconstitutional, after three counties have provided such hospitals and several others have bought sites and had plans made. It is likely an effort will be made to secure new legislation to meet the issues raised in Schuylkill county. A committee to consider this problem consists of R. S. Knapp, of Easton; Dr. Charles H. Miner, and Arthur M. Dewees.

The board adopted a program on tuberculosis prevention work recommended by a committee of directors. Major points in this program, which is to form the basis for the work of county tuberculosis societies which are supported by the sale of Christmas Seals, follow:

- Extension of health educational efforts which are so effective in combating tuberculosis and improving public health.
- Furtherance of child welfare work, including the Health Crusade, open air school, nutrition classes, adequate school medical inspection and proper nursing service.
- Greater effort to find tuberculosis cases.
- Making more effective co-operation with tuberculosis clinics.
- Promoting establishment of adequate and effective official local health service, including county health machinery.

Minor activities include a pure milk supply, occupational therapy and summer camps for under-nourished children.

Those present included: R. S. Knapp, Easton, president of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society; Dr. Charles H. Miner, State Secretary of Health; A. K. Wright, Clearfield; Dr. Edgar T. Shields, Chief of tuberculosis clinics; Miss Emma S. Lake, Greensburg; and W. P. Smith, of Pottsville.

Chiropractic

Tonsils and Adenoids are composed of Lymphoid tissue. The tonsils are a protective organ in the throat and adenoids are the nasal tonsils. These organs are relatively larger in children than in adults and in many cases are actually larger.

When they become abnormally large it is a symptom of a disorder, not a disease as is commonly believed. You can remove them, but it does not remove the cause of their enlargement.

The greatest surgeons and Health Service men in the world today condemn the practice of indiscriminate removal of them as it only multiplies the Health disturbances in later years.

Before having them removed consult a Competent CHIROPRACTOR and have him determine the cause of their enlargement. Spinal Analysis and Consultation without obligation. IF I CANNOT HELP
